COMPANY, ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA. CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in cash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the in-sured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the J. W. BURKE. combination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of Warch, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospeets of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may b determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the ELECTION OF LORD MAYOR OF LONDON .-Saturday, September 1st. being Michaelmas day, a common-hall was held, in accordance with ancient usage, in Guildhall, for the election of a chief magistrate for the city of London in the ensuing civic year. The following shows the manner in which a choice

Previous to the election the lord mayor, aldermen, and sheriff, accompanied by all the principal officers of the corporation, wearing their appropriate robes and badges of office, went in state to the church of St. Lawrence-Jewry, and heard Divine service and a sermon, which was preached by the Rev. Henry Christmas, A. M., the lord mayor's chaplain.

After the arrival of the procession at Guildhall, the common sergeant read the names of members of the corporation who had served the office of sheriff, and were eligible to fill that of lord mayor, viz: Wm Cubitt, M. P. alderman and fish monger; Sir Henry Muggeride, alderman and innholder; Wm. A. Rose, alderman and spectacle maker; William Lawrence, alderman and carpenter: Warren S. Hales, alderman and tallow chandler; Benjamin S. Phillips, alderman and spectacle maker; Thos. Gabriel, alderman and goldsmith; Wm. F. Allen, alderman and stationer; John J. Mechi, alderman and lorimer; and Edward Conder, alderman and wheelwright. The mace bearer then put the names to the meeting, one after another, of the alderman eligible to the mayoralty, when a large majority of hands were held up in favor of Alderman Cubitt. The mention of Sir Henry Muggeride's name was followed by the next greatest number of hands; and that of Alderman Mechi elicited a complimentary

The lord mayor and alderman proceeded to the chamber to decide between the two for whom the show of hands had preponderated over the rest of the members of their body eligible to fill the office, and on their return, the common sergeant, at the request of the lord mayor, announced that the election had fallen on Mr. Wm. Cubitt, M. P., alderman and fishmonger. The announcement was followed by loud and prolonged cheering, accompanied by waving of hats and handker-

VICISSITUDES OF ROME AND HER POPES .-The Papacy is not so near its end as many hope and expect. It has survived many a tug as hard as the present. In 1527 the combined German and Spanish armies of Charles V. stormed and sacked Rome, enacting in its streets the most diabolical cruelties, burning. torturing, robbing, ravishing, and destroying for ten days. Some six thousand of the abitants perished, 10,000,000 crowns of plunder were collected, and Pope Clement VII. paid 400,000 ducats for his own ransom. Luther thought that the end of Rome had come. But it has survived and recovered. Sixty years ago it was in the hands of Napoleon, who seemed to besitate whether to crush it or not. In 1820, 1831, and 1848, it was a prey to revolution, Garibaldi himself, at the last date, expelling the Pope who escaped in the disguise of a footman on a coach box. A republican government was then established, but another year saw him back again, and now he looks for support from the despotisms which would themselves tremble at his fall. His temporal dominion may be even now at an end; but that dominion is really his weakness, and not his strength, and when he is well rid of it he will reign as head] of the Roman Catholics, with more substantial influence than for a long time past. - English paper. Dores' FIRST "Motion."-Dobbs, during his first session as a member of the Legislature, was caught without a speech. He was remarkable for his modesty, and his thirst for "red eye." One unlucky day, the proceedings being rather dull, and Dobbs being rather thirsty, he concluded to go over to the hotel and take a drink. As Dobbs rose to leave the hall, he caught the speaker's eye. The Speaker supposed he intended to address the house, and announced in a low voice-

"Mr. Dobbs!" Dobbs started as if he had been shot. The assembled wisdom of the State had their eyes fixed upon him. He pulled out his pocket handkerchief to wipe away the perspiration, and feeling it necessary to say something, he thundered out: "Second the motion." "There is no motion before the house," said the Speaker.

"Then I—1——"

The silence was breathless. "-"

Dobbs could not think of anything to say But a bright idea came to him, and he finished with-"I move to adjourn." The motion didn't go, but Dobbs did, and nothing more was seen of him that day. NELSON WORSHIPPED AS A HEATHEN IDOL. - A letter from Hayti says: - " Among the Acul mountains there has been found, in an old house, a bust of Lord Nelson. It is of white marble, somewhat stained by time and neglect. Nelson is represented in his costume of Admiral, and bears on his breast five decorations .- One in commemoration of the battle of Aboukir, has the inscription: 'Rear Admiral Lord Nelson of the Nile.' Another medal bears the words: 'Almighty God has blessed his Majesty's glory!' This bust, interesting in its artistic and historical association, was found on an altar dovoted to the fetish worship, where for half a century, it has been reverenced as the Deity of the Mountain Streams. The names of the sculptors were 'Coale and Lealy, of Lambeth.' Thus, for fifty years, a bust of au English Admiral has been worshipped as a
